Groups Experiencing Higher HIV Impact

Social Determinants of Health

For people with HIV, the challenges of living in poverty, experiencing unstable housing or homelessness, and struggling to access or afford food make maintaining effective HIV treatment especially complicated.

People Living in Poverty

According to the 2024 Small Area Income and Poverty Estimates (US Census, 2024), 14.2% of persons in Miami-Dade County live in poverty, higher than the overall state average of 12.1%. Among those, 4,844 people with HIV who are Ryan White Part A/MAI clients (51.2%) were living below 130% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) in CY 2025.

People who are Homeless or Unstably Housed

661 Ryan White Part A/MAI Program clients in care (7.0%) experienced homelessness or were unstably housed in CY 2025.

The lack of affordable housing and rising Fair Market Rents (FMR) continue to hinder treatment adherence and threaten positive health outcomes.

People Experiencing Food Insecurity

According to www.MiamiDadeMatters.org, in 2023 (latest available data), an estimated 15.1% of people in Miami-Dade County experienced food insecurity.

In Fiscal Year 2025, the Ryan White Program Part A food bank helped more than 820 Ryan White Program clients experiencing food insecurity at a cost of more than $1.49 million.

Food insecurity is associated with chronic health problems in adults including diabetes, heart disease, high blood pressure, hyperlipidemia, obesity, and mental health issues including major depression.

Groups Experiencing Higher HIV Impact

People Over 50 with HIV and Long-Term Survivors

The trend is clear: People with HIV are aging out of their 50s and living into their 60s and 70s.

This is a population of special concern because people with HIV over 50 and long-term survivors (living with HIV for 20 or more years) are more likely to have negative health outcomes due to cognitive impairment, diabetes, hypertension, and other co-occurring conditions.

More than 74% of people with HIV in Miami-Dade County are Age 50 or older, and more than 33% are over age 60.

Positive Health Outcomes

The Ryan White Program (RWP) in Miami-Dade County continues to excel in keeping people in medical care and maintaining viral suppression - two of the most important measurements contributing to positive health outcomes. People with HIV in the 50 years and older age groups continue to show better health outcomes than the overall county population of people with HIV.

Groups Experiencing Higher HIV Impact

Groups by Race/Ethnicity and Sex

Black/African American Males

The incidence and prevalence of HIV/AIDS among Black/African American males is severely disproportionate compared to the population as a whole. HIV prevalence rates among Black/African American males are historically more than double the prevalence rates of the total population.

Percentage of Black/African American Males with HIV in Miami-Dade County Compared to the Population as a Whole, CY 2024

Data source: 2025 FDOH Epidemiological Profile

Black/African American male Ryan White Program clients also experience some of the lowest rates of retention in medical care and viral suppression - two key indicators for measuring positive health outcomes. Furthermore, Black/African Americans in Miami-Dade County - males and females - experience a higher rate of food insecurity - 28% - compared to 15.1% in Miami-Dade.

Data source: www.miamidadematters.org

Haitian Males and Females

From CY 2022 to CY 2024, Haitians had a significant increase in new HIV and AIDS cases.

Data source: 2025 FDOH Epidemiological Profile

- 87.7% increase in new HIV cases.
- 32.6% increase in new AIDS cases.

Monitoring viral suppression and retention in care for Haitian males and females continues to be a focus of Integrated Planning activities, including developing Quality Improvement protocols with Ryan White Program Part A/MAI providers whose populations are falling below targets.

Females

Perinatal, maternal, and infant health continues to be a focus of prevention and care and treatment efforts, with a target of maintaining the national goals of perinatal HIV incidence of <1 per 100,000 live births and a perinatal transmission rate of <1 %. For the seventh year in a row

In the U.S., the FOCUS program is a public health initiative that enables partners to develop and share best practices in routine blood-borne virus (HIV, HCV, HBV) screening, diagnosis and linkage to care in accordance with screening guidelines promulgated by the CDC, the U.S. Preventive Services Task Force and state and local public health departments.

Miami-Dade County Response

HIV Prevention

By the latest CDC estimate, in 2022, there were 2,412 individuals in Miami-Dade County who have HIV and are not aware of their status. FDOH-MDC HIV Prevention Strategies

- HIV/STI Testing
 - In CY 2025, FDOH-MDC conducted 62,319 HIV tests.
 - In CY 2025, the FOCUS Program conducted 213,800 HIV tests.
- Priority HIV Testing in High-Incidence Neighborhoods

 - PEP: Post-Exposure Prophylaxis. Use of medication to prevent HIV within 72 hours of potential exposure.
- Free Condoms
 - In CY 2025, FDOH-MDC distributed 862,079 free condoms with the help of a broad variety of community partners, including bars and clubs, colleges and schools, faith-based organizations, and street outreach.

Successful Outcomes

The Ryan White Program

Miami-Dade County's Ryan White Part A/Minority AIDS Initiative (Part A/MAI) Program continues to maintain clients in care and keep them virally suppressed.

The key measurement of program success is the HIV Care Continuum. Data are monitored on a monthly basis and quality improvement initiatives are developed as needed to ensure positive health outcomes.

HIV Care Continuum Criteria

- In Medical Care: At least one medical visit, a CD4 test, or viral load test in a 12 month period.
- Retained In Medical Care: Two or more medical visits or viral load tests, at least 90 days apart in a 12 month period.
- Virally Suppressed: Less than 200 copies of HIV per milliliter of blood according to the most recent lab result.

HIV Care Continuum Ryan White Part A/MAI Clients, FY 2021 - FY 2025

Data Source: Ryan White Program-Provide® Enterprise Miami

Successful Outcomes

Test and Treat/Rapid Access

The Florida Department of Health in Miami-Dade County and the Ryan White Program Part A/MAI rapid start protocol, referred to as Test and Treat/Rapid Access (TTRA), is the basis for same-day access to medical care and antiretroviral therapy medication and rapid linkage to ongoing care.

For people who receive a positive HIV test result, the TTRA process is proficient in connecting them to care, including providing a referral and warm hand-off for mental health, substance use, and medical care appointments.

For people who receive a negative HIV test result, PrEP services are available.

The protocol has demonstrated success in linking newly diagnosed persons to care, with a linkage rate of 83% in 2024.

Getting and keeping an undetectable viral load—when the amount of HIV in your blood is so low it can't be detected by a standard lab test—is the best thing someone living with HIV can do to stay healthy.

Challenges and Opportunities

Planning for the Future

The Partnership and community partners are closely monitoring proposed local, state and federal program changes and budget cuts.

We have made tremendous progress towards ending the HIV epidemic!

Funding Challenges

- Ryan White Program funding cuts affecting direct client services for people with HIV.
- Prevention funding cuts and limitations on activities, such as condom distribution.
- Limited funding for HIV testing and PrEP access.
- Cuts to research funding, particularly in the fields of HIV, mental health, and substance use disorders.
- Sustainability of ADAP funding for medication assistance.
- HOPWA Long-Term Rental Assistance funding cuts and program restrictions.

We urge you to support funding for the Ryan White HIV care and treatment programs, Housing Opportunities for People with AIDS, and HIV high impact prevention initiatives.

Legislative Challenges

- Lack of comprehensive sexual health education and limited opportunities to provide age-appropriate sexual health information, HIV prevention education, and HIV/STI testing in school settings.
- Divergent healthcare priorities from state and federal policy makers.

Cuts to HIV funding and elimination of programs threaten to set us back to the epidemic crisis levels of 40 years ago.

Additional Challenges

- The need to strengthen affordable and geographically accessible PrEP services.
- The need to understand and combat stigma that still surrounds HIV acquisition and treatment.
- The need to manage the unique needs of people aging with HIV including social isolation, chronic conditions, treatment fatigue, mobility limitations, and increased healthcare and insurance costs.
- Insufficient funding for outreach and engagement efforts to identify people with HIV who do not know their HIV status and get them into care.

Ending the HIV Epidemic Together

You Can Help End the HIV Epidemic!

Everyone has a role to play in ending the HIV epidemic.

Get tested for HIV and promote HIV testing in your community!

- If you are a local provider or County official with an interest in HIV planning in Miami-Dade County, join the Partnership!
- Keep up with Partnership activities and find resources at www.PartnershipMiami.org.
- Learn more about the Ryan White Program and resources for people with HIV at www.miamidade.gov/global/management/ryan-white-program.page.

Support People with HIV.

- Listen. Being diagnosed with HIV is life-changing news. Be available to have open, honest conversations about HIV. Follow the lead of the person who is diagnosed with HIV. They may not want to talk about their diagnosis or may not be ready. They may want to connect with you in the same ways they did before they were diagnosed. Do things you did together before their diagnosis; talk about things you talked about before their diagnosis. Show them that you see them as the same person and that they are more than their diagnosis.
- Learn. Educate yourself about HIV: what it is, how it is and is not transmitted, how it is treated, and how people can stay healthy with HIV. Having a solid understanding of HIV is a big step forward in supporting people with HIV.
